By very conservative estimates 500,000 to 600,000 Jews work on the Island of Manhattan every Monday through Friday.
That's 1 out of every 26 Jews in the world!

For most of these Jews, Jewish education—if they had any— probably ended shortly after their bar or bat mitzvah.

As adults they enjoy personal and professional achievements, but Judaism remains a mystery: What are Judaism's basic beliefs? What is my history? What are Jewish holidays about–and what does it mean to me?

Knowledgeable lecturers make thousands of years of Jewish wisdom accessible during weekly classes held at workplaces throughout midtown and lower Manhattan.

YOU can make a difference! Connect a fellow Jew to Judaism by bringing them to a Center for Return TorahLunch class.

CFR brings the Jewish Study Hall to the workplace.

Our convenient workplace locations in midtown and lower Manhattan make it easy to help fellow Jews learn about Judaism and enjoy a great lunch at the same time!

Reach out to a colleague or friend and bring them to a Center for Return TorahLunch class.
